HOAGLAND'S
NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
W. E. COOPER

HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent, and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive

Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.
He respectfully refers to the following
CARD.

Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling invented by H. R. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used.

It fastens without bolt or screw, and is therefore easily and speedily separated. ... Gutta Percha, so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs ... It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant, and is convenient, safe and secure.

It is easy to change to this ... coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use, and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent heretofore considered the best in use.

French Explanation of the Secret Treaty.

The Emperor at the Head of the Army.

THE FRENCH ATTACK SAARBRUCKEN IN LARGE FORCE, BUT ARE VIGOROUSLY REPULSED.

Diplomatic Affairs

PARIS, July 30.—Ollivier, Prime Minister, had an interview yesterday with the principal editors of Paris, during which he explained the position of the Government on several questions concerning Prussia. He gave some explanations of the secret treaty project which Benedetti had previously given. Relative to measures taken by the Cabinet some time ago to effect a general disarmament, he says the efforts were merely intermediatory of those of Earl Clarendon for the purpose. Bismarck replied to Clarendon that King William refused absolutely to disarm. Ollivier said he gave the honor of his name and that of his colleagues that no other offer was made to Prussia than that made to Clarendon. On the same question Ollivier said it has seemed equitable and useful to the French government to evacuate Rome, because it always kept her promises, which unites us more closely with Italy and Austria.

The Journal Officiel publishes Benedetti's explanation of the secret treaty affair. It is well known that Bismarck made France an offer before and after the war with Austria. The substance of an offer was that France should take Belgium as compensation for aggrandizement of Prussia. The Emperor in all cases declined the proposition. The very moment the treaty of Prague was concluded Bismarck again betrayed a desire to restore the equilibrium and made several proposals looking to combinations affecting the integrity of the States bordering on France. During one of these conversations, Bismarck declared to Benedetti this secret treaty project, which has just been made public and which Bismarck has kept ever since. This accounts for the handwriting. Benedetti gave notice of the contents of the proposed treaty to the Emperor's government at the time, but the proposition was promptly rejected. Benedetti adds that the King of Prussia was not favorable to Bismarck's plans.

Dispatches from Paris

PARIS, July 30.—To day the Emperor assumed command in chief of the army. The Prince Imperial visited the camps to-day and was received with great enthusiasm. There has been no serious engagement; all rumors to the contrary are false.

It is reported on the best of authority that the recent mission to Vienna was a complete success. Austria will not take umbrage at present. The Italians in Rome will remain in accord with Italy.

British "Neutrality."

BERLIN, July 30.—It is officially stated that Lord Loftus, British Ambassador, has gone to Golstein, probably to escape discussions of the neutrality preserved by England in such very extraordinary fashion.

General Details

LONDON, July 30.—It is now thought that the Prussian army will propose to cross the Rhine from Baden to France near Huningue, two miles below Basle.

LONDON, July 30.—There is great activity in the defense of Antwerp. Bismarck takes the field at the head of his regiment of cuirassiers, leaving Herr Thiele in charge of a foreign office.

Belgium has 100,000 men in position. The English home force is now only 80,000 men.

BERLIN, July 30 (via London, July 31, 12 30 A. M).—This morning the French attacked Saarbrucken in a largely superior force, but were vigorously repulsed.

FRANKFORT, July 30.—U. S. bonds opened buoyant at 78 and closed heavy at 76⅞.

FRANKFORT, July 30—Evening.—The city was much excited to day with rumors, the most important of which is one of Federal action? U. S. bonds are greatly affected by this report. They opened buoyant under the influence of favorable news from Saarbrucken, and fell to 76⅛ at the close.

The French Position.

BIRMINGHAM, July 30.—The French army is placed as follows: First corps, under Marshal McMahon, at Strasbourg; second corps, under Gen. Trossard, at St. Avold; third corps, under Marshal Bazaine, at Metz; fourth corps, under Gen. Count L'Admirault, at Thionville; fifth corps, under Gen. De Failley, at Bitche; sixth corps, under Marshal Canrobert, at Chalons; seventh corps, under Gen. Douay, at Belfort; eighth corps, under Gen. Bourbaky, at army headquarters.

Dispatch from Vienna.

VIENNA, July 30.—Austria consults Italy on the attitude to be preserved. She is said to contemplate a notice to the Pope that the Concordat will no longer be considered binding.

Attitude of Great Britain.

LONDON, July 30.—In view of the public sentiment of England, occasioned by the publication of the recent treaty, the Government will address a communication to the governments of France and Prussia, declaring the explanation of the secret treaty unsatisfactory. From orders recently issued from the War Office it is believed that it is intended to ask Russia to join England in placing an army in Belgium for the protection of that country.

Inciting Causes of the War

[From the New York Herald, July 15th]

In looking for the cause of this conflict so suddenly sprung up, we must go deeper than the question of the Spanish crown. It may be a matter of ... the ... of both sovereigns. The ... in France are very short. Bread riots in Paris are dangerous affairs. A hungry and discontented people must be diverted in some way from brooding over home grievances. A war is just the thing for the emergency. Napoleon is shrewd enough to see this, and it may be presented to his sagacious mind just now the question between a war and a dynasty. There are troublesome elements at work in Prussia too. The popular parties who are disposed to cut down the army supplies and reduce the army are gaining ground. There appears to be every probability that they will have a majority at the next election, which would be most embarrassing for the King and government. Do not the real causes of the war lie in these facts?

The Naturalization Bugbear

A [illegible] was [illegible] the Sun[illegible] the [illegible] Chinese [illegible] Herald [illegible] paper [illegible] are allowed to naturalize what Chinese are here. It is a terrible outrage [illegible]. The Herald seems quite inconsolable, and has inflicted its readers already [illegible] with [illegible] of lamentation. What [illegible] we quote from the paper is there [illegible] the African [illegible]. And again: "Will a barbarous negro from the wilds of Africa make a better citizen than the educated and refined Chinaman?" [illegible] We are very sure that [illegible] any Chinaman could be "educated and refined." Are not the best of them miserable heathen, "leprous wretches, who should be kept as distant from the 'white man's country' as the antipodes?" Undoubtedly, if we are to believe what the Herald has always taught heretofore.

As to that individual designated as "the barbarous negro from the wilds of Africa," he does not [illegible] this country [illegible] in his wilds and does not emigrate from them. The discontinuance of the slave trade [illegible] ago put a stop to his coming or being brought here. A colored man born in Africa is an individual whom nobody nowadays sees in the United States. The talk of all Africa being let in by a law which allows persons of African birth or descent to be naturalized is ridiculous. By the fourteenth amendment all persons of African descent born in the United States, are made citizens. Therefore the great body of colored people in this country have already been naturalized. But there are a few persons of color who were born in the West Indies, in Canada and perhaps in England, who are not citizens of the United States. This law allows them to naturalize. Their number is so inconsiderable as to be hardly noticeable, and except for manifest hardship in a few individual cases it was scarcely worth while to amend the naturalization laws for their benefit. Of course nobody supposes there will be any emigration from "the wilds of Africa" to the United States. The negro has never yet left his native country of his own free will. All the blacks now in the United States or other "Christian" lands, are persons who were carried away from Africa as slaves, or descendants of them.

Inasmuch as all persons of African descent born in the United States are already citizens there is no valid objection to allowing the few here who were born in other countries to naturalize. A native African will be seen so rarely in our courts that he will be a phenomenon.

We need not review the case in regard to the Chinaman. The arguments showing why he should not be permitted to naturalize have been often presented. They were urged with such force by Republican Senators from the Pacific States as to cause a large majority of the Senate to decide against the proposition to extend to Chinese the privilege of naturalization. And we may add here that it was fortunate that the Pacific States had Republican Senators to speak on this question. Had the Senators from these States been Democrats, their opposition to Chinese naturalization would have been comparatively ineffective. It would have been attributed to the same motives which have prompted Democrats to so bitterly oppose every measure to secure justice to the negro. But our Republican Senators set forth the case forcibly and fairly, and their statements and arguments carried with them great weight. In all probability the result would have been different had there been none but Democratic Senators from the Pacific States. So long as there is Republican influence in Congress from these States Chinese will not be allowed to become citizens, but if the Democrats should get the delegation from this section little heed would be given to their remonstrances.

Slanderous Charges Repeated.

The Democratic papers continue to protest that their members of the Legislature never, never can be "bought" to vote for Williams. Who in all Oregon, except Democrats, ever intimated that they could? But sure as the Democratic papers are of the integrity of their members they want to "make assurance doubly sure," and therefore some of them have proposed the highly original and brilliant scheme of requiring every Democratic member to make an affidavit to the effect that he will not vote for Williams or for any Republican for Senator, and that money would be no inducement whatever. These newspapers are advertising their friends in an unenviable and uncomplimentary manner. They seem not to be aware that it is they who are calling in question the integrity of their members and their fealty to the party. Nobody else has ever spoken about "buying" or "selling" members of the Legislature. Nobody else has ever intimated Democratic members will take bribes unless they can be got beforehand to swear they won't. Our Democratic brethren of the press would do themselves and their party credit by discontinuing these asseverations that reflect so strongly upon the integrity of those whom their party has placed in honorable and responsible positions. But the Herald continually inculcates the idea, in a sinister way, that they can be "bought." It said the day after the election that many even of the best class of Democrats "sold themselves for bright gold and were bought like so many glass-eyed Cayuse horses," and it is now applying to Democratic members of the Legislature language very similar to that which it applied a few weeks ago to Democratic voters. These charges, we believe are groundless and slanderous. How that party can tolerate them from its own leading organ we cannot divine.

The changes made in the internal revenue and tariff laws take effect, the former on the 1st October, the latter on the 1st January next. The reduction of taxes effected by these changes, as we have heretofore stated will be from $[illegible] 000 000 to $80 000 000 per annum.

The act to prevent the extermination of fur bearing animals in Alaska authorizes the Secretary of the Treasury to lease Seal Islands to a party for 20 years for $20 000 yearly rental and for $2 per head for each seal killed. That only 100 000 seals shall be killed each year, and the party leasing the islands shall give bond to conform to the regulations of the Department and laws of Congress. This is the act under which bids were received which were opened last week at Washington.

SUMMER WANDERINGS.

A LAD[illegible] [illegible]

THE [illegible]

July 26. The great excitement of Olympia is the North Pacific Railroad. The [illegible] quite [illegible] the [illegible]. The long agony is over. A few days ago a company of surveyors [illegible] at Tumwater, and on the morning of the [illegible] at [illegible] the initial stake was driven [illegible] North [illegible] Sound [illegible] we [illegible] that they are [illegible].

Now I will [illegible] as the editor of the [illegible] said [illegible] of I was [illegible] I should invest all my earthly goods at once, and lay the foundation of a gigantic fortune for my nephews and nieces. But my reason for not investing is that I do not understand the initial stake to mean [illegible] except as far as it will be made the starting point of the first [illegible] which the bill calls for to be built each half [illegible] on the Sound in a given length of line. In order to build the required amount of road in a limited time the company will certainly commence at the most southern point of the Sound; but where they will move their terminus to when they have secured their subsidies is not so clear to all minds as to the hopeful few. One might buy out the Puget Sound Homestead Association with its buying into the "terminus," and therefore, however much I might like to enrich my nephews and nieces I do not yet see my way clear to do it.

It is amusing to listen to the

COMMENTS [illegible]

Of people upon the subject of the railroad. Grave men discuss it gravely; lighter minded individuals talk of cutting up that first stake for toothpicks to be sold as [illegible]; ladies mention the matter flippantly, as if still doubting their prospect [illegible]; children rush to the scene of the survey, and young misses talk railroad while playing at graces or croquet. But after the smile with which one listens to all these various comments comes the reflection that there are really very great interests underlying this floating talk; nor is it any wonder that the planting of the first stake on the western end of the North Pacific Railroad should be an event to stir the Olympian blood.

A DRIVE FR[illegible] OLYMPIA.

During my stay at Olympia Mrs. [illegible] took me to drive on Chambers' prairie, one of the favorite drives for the townpeople. The road takes us past two lovely little lakes through a belt of noble woods, in whose deep shadows the spirea grows to a wonderful height, lifting its creamy white plumes daintily upon slender brown stems with but scant foliage. It is a pretty conceit which has given to this flower the common name of sea foam—for the resemblance in form and color to flakes of sea foam is almost perfect. The porous, gravelly soil near the Sound, leaves nothing to be done or desired in the matter of roads, which are smooth as a floor, and dry without being dusty. Chambers' prairie is a plain of but a few miles in diameter, divided into farms whose most productive portions are those which border on the timbered land, where the soil receives the yearly accession of a certain quantity of leaf mold. This I observed to be true of all the prairies between the Cowlitz mountain and the Sound. Where there was a garden or cornfield in the edge of a prairie it looked very thrifty, and where there was a piece of bottom land on any of the streams, there was an abundant crop of grass—in fact the heaviest I remember to have seen anywhere. The hay, just cut, and gathered into windrows of good size, covered the ground with but small spaces between.

Chambers' prairie takes its name from its first settler, a "colored individual" from Missouri, who had for his wife a white woman. The oldest orchard near Olympia is the Chambers orchard, and Olympians remember the time when a quarter or half dollar was willingly given for three or five common seedling apples. Fruit is now plenty and good on the Sound, but I should judge a trifle later than in Oregon.

LANDS AND FARMS.

On further inquiry as to nature of soil, agricultural lands, etc., I am told that the unproductive gravel beds extend eastward from the Sound only about ten miles, when the country commences a gradual rise to the foothills of the Cascades, improving in soil and furnishing a fine stock raising region, with many good locations for farms. No doubt those several hundred German families now en route to Washington Territory, will know how to make these deserts blossom as the rose. Governor Salomon will make himself immensely popular by his labors in the cause of immigration, and very justly, for the need of the "New Northwest" is population.

"SOCIETY" AT OLYMPIA.

The weather while I was at Olympia had a cool and showery mood, which prevented my seeing several of the best views of mountains, etc., and rendered impossible a clam bake, on which my heart was very much set. Clam bakes, boating parties, riding parties and all that are popular in Olympia. Indeed I cannot help thinking that while these northerners have not a press of business on hand they are enjoying life much better than those who have—and that with a railroad train arriving two or three times a day, they will find their pleasant socialities departing. At present there are a goodly number of visitors here and I stumble upon acquaintances from Portland, Walla Walla and Astoria. A more stylish looking congregation than listened to Mr. Chamberlin, of Walla Walla, at the Presbyterian Church last Sabbath I have never seen north of San Francisco. Not that "style" in a church makes us more devout, but that it rather takes one by surprise up in this wooden country to come upon a large assemblage of people with a look of culture and refinement about them, and arrayed besides in the latest fashions.

AN ELEGANT STEAMER.

The steamer Olympia is a craft that would do credit to any waters in any part of the world. Large, commodious and handsomely fitted up, having a most obliging corps of officers, the trip from Olympia to Victoria is a progress of pleasure. Unfortunately for future pleasure seekers, she is soon to be taken off the line and the Anderson put in her place. The reason for the change is, that there is not business enough to support so much elegance. The only objection to be made to the present arrangement is the price of fare, ten dollars being passage money for a voyage of one hundred and thirteen miles direct, which turns out to different ports makes thirty instead of thirteen. And it used to cost twenty dollars to make this little voyage—then fifteen, now ten, which, when it is once more halved, will be about right.

DOWN THE SOUND.

The early hour at which the steamer departs from the head of the Sound, prevents the tourist seeing the whole panorama of blue waters, wooded headlands and new towns. I regretted to lose the view of Steilacoom especially as it is here that Mount Rainier is seen to best advantage. Every one here speaks enthusiastically of the fine views and beautiful drives about Steilacoom, but the difficulty in the way of seeing all these places is that there is but one steamer a week to Victoria, and without taking chance conveyances from port to port one would be obliged to spend a week at those points chosen for special visits, and that is quite too much time to give to sight seeing in small new towns.

THE T[illegible]WN OF SEATTLE.

Seattle is the largest place on the Sound, and has an amount of wharfage which would do credit to a much larger town. It is also a city set upon a hill that cannot be hid. Here were several ships loading and unloading, and a great boom and wharf of mills in operation. Small steamers were plying back and forth between this point and Port Blakely and Freeport, opposite—the one a high, round promontory—and the other a long, low neck of land projecting into the Sound so as to form a bay with the first.

Seattle has a fine large court house situated on the very brow of the hill and showing conspicuously from the landing. I noticed that one of the hotels was [illegible] an [illegible] sign board marked "Western Terminus." [illegible] that reminded me of a conversation I overheard in Olympia between two girls of thirteen, the conclusion of which was: "When they begin to build a railroad here they will have them all over everywhere!"—in which case it would be difficult to decide where the overcharged "terminus" might be. Seattle though busy looking did not impress me so pleasantly as Olympia, nor is it so pretty a town as Port Madison, the next place of importance. It has a new interest being developed, a coal mine which lies some miles to the east of the Sound. It is reached by land and water carriage, and is a resort much visited by tourists. The alternation of carriage, steamer and railway makes the excursion one of interest and enjoyment. Lake Washington (or Dwamish) is about thirty miles in length by four or five in width, and is now furnished with a small steamer which connects with the travel at either side of the lake, furnishing not only easy conveyance but an opportunity for sight seeing which is very desirable. The coal from this mine resembles that found on the Cowlitz river, but is claimed to be superior by its owners and Washing[illegible] [illegible] in general. The truth, however, that [illegible] a [illegible] weight to make them superior [illegible] much [illegible] far [illegible] the great beds of coal extending from [illegible] Bay down to the Columbia river and lower.

To get to Port Madison the steamer ascends a small inlet [illegible] the [illegible] The hillside here is less abrupt than at Seattle and the residences more cozy in appearance. One charming feature of the scenery here is the magnificent growth of [illegible] trees reserved for ornament and shade. These trees are [illegible] there [illegible] the [illegible] of the Sound [illegible] certainly suggests something with regard to the quality of [illegible] bordering the waters of Washington Territory. F. F. V.

"SAN ANTONIO." Here comes that bed rock Democratic paper the Eugene Guard, after the Herald. It is evident that the status of the leading paper in its party is not remarkably high. [illegible]

The Portland Herald is a most utterly [illegible] daily paper. It is old foggyish, and its editor fondly imagines that he is the only sensible man on the Pacific coast. A grasshopper [illegible] makes light of every one in Oregon, and in fact anywhere outside of the Herald editorial room knowing anything about the war in Europe. He anxiously awaits the [illegible] leader on the subject. If the editor of the [illegible] paper has an amount of brain that could be contained in the shell of a mustard seed he can write an indefinitely better editorial on any subject than the astute editor of the Herald.

There has hitherto been popularly supposed to be a limit to human conceit and audacity. That limit has been washed away, however, by an example which overtops the inferia of all that imagination has conceived. The editor of [illegible] has received a note from a gentleman whose name he mercifully abstains from printing, but who dates of course from New York, offering to complete "The Mystery of Edwin Drood" and to furnish the manuscript in time so that there shall be no break in the serial publication of the novel. The applicant inclosed a story of his own to show his qualification for the task.

New Orleans is in a state of sympathetic excitement over the loss of a child belonging to a Mr Digby, which has been spirited away by mulatto woman. The Governor of the State offers a reward of $1 000 for the recovery of the child, and the father adds $500 to the amount. The whole police force of the city is on the watch.

A NE[illegible] COUGH, Cold or Sore Throat which might be checked by a simple remedy, like "BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES," if allowed to progress may terminate seriously. For Bronchitis, Asthma, Catarrh and Consumptive Coughs, THE TROCHES are used with advantage, giving oftentimes immediate relief. Singers and public speakers will find them also excellent to clear the voice and render articulation wonderfully easy.

Ordinance No. 823.

AN ORDINANCE TO REGULATE THE LETTING of contracts for street work.

The City of Portland does ordain as follows:

Section 1. Whenever the Common Council shall by ordinance provide for the time and manner of improving any street or streets in the city of Portland, and an estimate of the work to be done has been made, the Committee on Streets and Public Property of the Common Council are hereby authorized to advertise for proposals and enter into contract on behalf of the city for the furnishing of materials and performing the labor necessary for the completion of the proposed improvement subject to the restrictions and regulations hereinafter provided.

Section 2. A notice shall be published not less than three insertions in the newspaper doing the city printing, specifying the name of the street, the part thereof proposed to be improved, the number of the ordinance providing therefor, and that no [illegible] shall be received after the time specified [illegible] reserving the right to reject any and all bids shall be reserved.

Section 3. Bids must specify the price per cubic yard for grading, the price per lineal foot for all wood work (except Nicolson pavement which shall be let by the square yard), opposite the number of each block bid upon. Each bid shall be accompanied with the undertaking properly verified, of two freeholders in the sum of five hundred dollars to the effect that if a contract be awarded to such bidder that he will enter into contract and give security for its faithful performance within [illegible] after receipt of notice of such award.

Section 4. [illegible]

THE [illegible] TO THE MOLALLA BRIDGE.—A party of gentlemen went up yesterday on an excursion to [illegible] the Molalla bridge, the present [illegible]. The road, however, [illegible] track [illegible] ready for the rails, to a point several miles further up the valley. The part of the road constructed last year is now straightened up and ballasted and is in excellent condition, as is also a portion of the new road. From [illegible] to the bridge the road is as pretty a piece of work as there can be anywhere—with but a single curve and almost level. The grade from Baker's prairie down to the bridge is not more than forty feet to the mile. The bridge, [illegible] hundred and six feet long, stretches across the stream in two equal spans at a height of about thirty five or forty feet, and is supported by three [illegible] piers, one at either bank and another in the middle, apparently strong enough to defy the terrible floods which sometimes come pouring down the river. The bridge, one of Howe's Improved Truss, is an imposing as well as beautiful structure, and is estimated to be strong enough to carry about six times the weight which it is possible to put on it by trains crossing. The bridge and trestle work necessary to construct a crossing of the Molalla is 3 300 feet in length. A portion of the trestle work is almost as high as the bridge, but it is built so substantially that the most timid passenger must find it difficult to get up a nervous tremor while going over it. The bridge was put up under the superintendence of Mr. J. B. Keepers, of the firm of Boomer & Co., of Chicago, who built the great bridge on the Union Pacific, and are now building the Omaha railroad bridge across the Missouri river. The laying of track is just now suspended, or nearly so, for the lack of iron. A supply is, however, almost daily expected, and when it shall arrive the road will in a short time be put through to Salem.

A [illegible].—Saturday evening the city was set all agog over a report that Shultz was in a state of siege in a house out northwest of town. The story, starting from a slim foundation, grew into all sorts of proportions as it passed from mouth to mouth, and created a great excitement. It seems that a party of men had gone out in the brush to hunt for the [illegible] who have been hiding in that neighborhood, and that towards evening they had heard several shots fired under such circumstances as to lead them to believe the [illegible] they were looking for were in the brush. One of them came into the city and informed the police, whereupon Marshal Saunders and several others got a wagon and went out, but discovered nothing. The return of this party created almost as much excitement as did the first report, but as soon as it was learned that the expedition had been [illegible] there was a general laugh and poke fun at the whole affair.

NEW RESTAURANT.—Messrs. [illegible] Lee & McLeod will open their [illegible] Restaurant in Capt. Gilman's building next to the postoffice this morning. The place will be conducted upon the eastern plan, and in some respects will be a decided improvement on any of the restaurants or hotel dining rooms. Keith, lessee, for the Willamette Hotel Co. Mr. W. R. Sewall, formerly connected with the Western and the Cosmopolitan hotels, is Secretary of the Company and will be employed as clerk and bookkeeper of the hotel. Since the completion of the building as originally designed (when we gave quite a full description of it) a number of important alterations have been made in its interior economy, with the view of securing all possible conveniencies. The entire ground room occupied last season by as a dry goods store, has been converted into an office, from which a flight of stairs with the main hall and dining the first floor. Arched doorways have through the walls of the original hall back from Morrison street, which lead room finished and fitted in elegant and costly style. Messrs Green & Knott are the lessees of the bar room. The upper rooms have been finished with the very best of carpets, and elegant furniture at an expense of nearly $30,000. On the first floor there are a dining room, a ladies ordinary, first with all modern appliances, bath parlors, family suits, water closets, etc., etc. The second and third floors are divided into double and single sleeping rooms, all fitted in the best style. In all parts of this building water is supplied (hot or cold) for all possible uses, and every room is supplied with means of thorough ventilation. Everything has been arranged with special view to guard against the dangers of fire. It would be difficult to imagine what more could be done to render it elegant, convenient, desirable and desirable to hotel livers; and it so that the schedule of prices has been put at very reasonable figures. It can now no longer be said that Portland has not a first-class hotel.

THE OREGON AND CALIFORNIA RAILROAD.—A party of gentlemen went up yesterday on an excursion train to the Molalla bridge, the present terminus of the track. The road is however, graded and trestles built ready for the rails, to a point several miles further up the valley. The part of the road constructed last year is now surfaced up and ballasted, and is in excellent condition; as is also a portion of the new road. From Parrot's Point to the bridge, the road is as fine a piece of work as there can be anywhere—not a single curve and almost level. The grade from Baker's Prairie down to the bridge is about forty feet to the mile. The bridge, two hundred and six feet long, stretches across the stream in two equal spans at a height of about thirty or forty feet, and is supported by three stone piers, one at either bank and another in the middle, apparently strong enough to defy the floods which sometimes come pouring down the river. The bridge, one of "Howe's patent truss" is an imposing as well as beautiful structure, and is estimated to be strong enough to carry about six times the weight which is likely to be put on it by trains crossing. The trestle work necessary to construct a crossing of the Molalla is 3,300 feet in length. A part of the trestle work is almost as high as the bridge, but it is built so substantially that the traveler must find it difficult to get a tremor while going over it. The bridge was put up under the superintendence of Messrs. of the firm of Boomer & Co., who built the great bridge on the and are now building the Omaha bridge across the Missouri river. The work is just now suspended, or nearly so, for lack of iron. A supply is, however, expected, and when it shall arrive will, in a short time, be put through to

A FALSE ALARM.—Saturday evening the city was alarmed by a report that Shultz was in a house out northwest of town. The story, starting from a slim foundation, grew to proportions as it passed from mouth to mouth, and created great excitement. It was said a party of men had gone out in the hunt for the desperadoes who have been in that neighborhood, and that toward they had heard several shots fired under as to lead them to believe that they were looking for were in. One of them came to the city and informed the police, whereupon Marshal Saunders and others got in a wagon and went out, found nothing. The return of this party created about as much excitement as did the; but as soon as it was learned that expedition had been entirely fruitless, there was a general disposition to laugh and poke fun at the whole affair.

NEW RESTAURANT.—Messrs. Lee & McLeod opened their "Eastern Restaurant" in Capt. 's building, next door to the postoffice, this morning. The place will be conducted upon the eastern plan, and in some respects will be a decided improvement upon any of the restaurants in the city. The tables are enclosed in such manner as to isolate each table, or they can all be thrown into a single dining hall, for parties, by merely raising the partitions. The kitchen is so entirely separated from the dining hall that all cooking smells will be entirely avoided. We recommend travelers to call and try the new place.

TAKING PRIESTLY ORDERS.—Yesterday, at the Cathedral, a couple of sub-deacons of the Catholic Church, named Kelly and Galliani, took the orders of Priesthood, the ordination being performed by Rt. Rev. A. M. A. Blanchet, Bishop of Nesqually. These two gentlemen came up from Santa Clara on the Idaho for the purpose of being ordained, Bishop Blanchet being the only bishop on the coast, all the others being absent. Fathers Kelly and Galliani will return by the next steamer.

DOWN THE RIVER.—We learn that the sloop ran upon a snag a few days since, and sunk. The crew were rescued by a small boat from Fort

A boat arrived Friday evening from Port Townsend, with four men who are supposed to have been searching for smugglers. Fuel oyster beds have been discovered about thirty miles from Astoria, near the mouth of Elk Creek.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT—DEADY J.—This court will sit this morning, when an opinion will be announced on the motion to dissolve the injunction

ACCESSIONS TO OUR LAW FRATERNITY.—Messrs. Bellinger and Burmester who had announced a law partnership at Albany, have concluded to try their fortunes at the metropolis. Mr. Burmester has formed a partnership with Lansing Stout, Esq., and Mr. Bellinger proposes to locate at East Portland. A great lawyer and close observer once said that though the profession was much crowded there was plenty of room in the upper story. In this sense, though our bar is somewhat full, there is probably room for these new comers.

AMUSEMENTS.—The leader of the 23d Infantry Band, Mr. Leidner, took a benefit yesterday afternoon, at East Portland Park—rather a substantial one financially, if we may judge by the number of persons who crossed and recrossed the river.

To-morrow evening Dick Clinton will take his benefit at Oro Fino Theater. He has been here almost since the opening of Oro Fino by Mr. Bates, and this is his first appearance as a beneficiary. Give him a good house.

AFTER TRAINOR.—About 2 o'clock Saturday morning, some of the parties who are on the lookout for the desperadoes, thought they had got Trainor surrounded in the block bounded by Alder, First, Morrison and Second streets. A man supposed to be he, was seen to enter an alley between the Chinese houses, a guard was set on all the streets, and officers then went through the block with torches, but nobody was found answering either to the name or description of Trainor.

LAY THE DUST.—We second the suggestion of the Sentinel, that the streets around the plaza be sprinkled on the evenings the Twenty-third Infantry Band plays for the citizens of this city. It is a source of great annoyance, to pedestrians at least, to be almost stifled with dust, which the many vehicles passing and repassing by no means help to abate. Many, no doubt, rather forego the pleasure of listening to the fine music than be covered from head to foot with a coat of dust.

CHILD POISONED.—The Bulletin says: "A small child, aged six years, belonging to a Mr. Ritchey, who lives in Powell's valley, about ten miles from the city, was badly poisoned on last Thursday by eating a quantity of fly poison, which had been mixed and left standing where the child could reach it. Dr. Rafferty, of East Portland, was summoned. For a while the life of the child was despaired of, but at last accounts the symptoms were more favorable."

LECTURE ON PHYSIOGNOMY.—It will be recollected that Dr. Simms will deliver a free lecture this evening, on Physiognomy, at Philharmonic Hall. The Doctor comes among us fortified by first class newspaper notices from the East, and we doubt not he will be able to present the subject under discussion in such way as to make it peculiarly attractive.

MINING NEWS.—The Boise Chronicle says: We learn from Leon Creek that mines are now being opened at a rapid rate. Mr. H. P. Isaacs writes to his brother at this place that the claims above and below his saw mill are paying from $300 to $500 per day, and he is now opening a claim on the mill site, and expects it to pay in proportion.

RAILROAD IRON.—The bark Zephyr, which has now been some days out from San Francisco, bound for Portland, has on board a quantity of rails for the Oregon and California railroad.

SCHOOLS.—The next term of school at St. Mary's Academy will open on Tuesday, August 16th. The St. Helen's Hall school will open again on Monday, August 8th.

FREIGHT FROM SAN FRANCISCO.—The steamship Oriflamme, now out from San Francisco for this port, has on board six hundred and fifty tons freight.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

A Victoria paper says that the upward tendency of real estate consequent upon the practical and favorable form recently assumed by the question of confederation is clearly perceptible in recent transactions.

The run of salmon is unusually good in the Fraser this season, and the catch is very abundant. The difficulty experienced in obtaining a sufficient supply of barrels threatens to limit the amount likely to be cured.

It is rumored at Victoria that telegrams have been received by Capt. Herbert, of H. M. S. Scylla, from the Admiralty, with respect to the disposition of the British ships of war in the Pacific during the existence of continental troubles; and that a telegram has been also sent from the Admiralty to Admiral Farquhar, directing the return of the Zealous to this station.

The steamer Newbern arrived at Nanaimo a few days ago from Sitka. She had on board a large number of army officers and soldiers who have left Sitka. There is only one company there now, and General Davis will come down on the next trip of the Constantine. There is no news of any importance from Alaska. The Newbern sailed from Nanaimo for San Francisco on the 28th ult.

A Victoria paper of the 23d ult., has the following: The schooner Rose, Capt. Killer, arrived yesterday afternoon, nine days from Sitka with a cargo of furs, &c. From her captain we learn that a party of eight miners from Skeena river are at Tongas, waiting to come down on the steamer Constantine. The steamer Newbern, with about 300 discharged soldiers on board, was coaling at Nanaimo and will be down here to-day. The Newbern towed the Rose down to Nanaimo.

There is more trouble regarding San Juan Island. It is stated by a Victoria journal that Capt. Delacombe, Commandant of the British Garrison on San Juan Island, has been served with a writ at the instance of Alexander McKenzie, a Scotchman, who was banished from the Island a few weeks ago for claiming and working a piece of land belonging to the estate of a deceased American citizen. Apropos of this suit, the British subjects resident on the Island have presented an address to Capt. Delacombe endorsing his action, and condemning the conduct of McKenzie, which they appear to think, would have given cause to serious difficulty between the American and British settlers.

CALIFORNIA AND NEVADA.

The Vallejo City water-works, to cost $250,000, will, after next December, supply 3,000,000 gallons daily.

Several hundred tons of honey will be shipped to San Francisco from Los Angeles county the present season.

A misunderstanding between the city of Stockton and the Gas Company has resulted in a failure to light up the town for a week or two past.

President Mark Hopkins, of Williams College, one of the most prominent of College Presidents in the United States, and author of the "Evidences of Christianity" and other works is now visiting California.

The Bee states that a movement is on foot in Sacramento to establish an Agricultural Implement Manufactory at that place, as a private and home enterprise, and states that the farmers around will take stock in it according to their means.

A drove of 1,000 Texas cattle were brought to Sacramento recently, and are being pastured across the American river. A disease has broken out among them, which is rapidly carrying them off. Native cattle in the neighborhood are affected in the same manner.

From the San Francisco Scientific Press: Farmers in many parts of the State are compelled to employ Chinamen in harvesting, owing to the refusal of unemployed white men to leave this city for work, even when offered a a good price there for—at least what they, themselves consider a good price in this city.

A late dispatch from Shasta says: "H. O. Hutchinson, Engineer of the California and Oregon Railroad, was drowned this afternoon, while endeavoring to run his line across the Sacramento, near the mouth of Pitt river. A canoe in which was George Bulger and himself, was capsized. Hutchinson clung to the bottom of the canoe while it was rapidly carried a distance of half a mile over the ripples, when suddenly he relaxed his hold and sunk, having probably been injured by coming in contact with the bowlders."

The Indianapolis (Ind.) Journal, in speculating on the work of the census takers thus far, says that the indications are that the population of that State will approximate to 2,000,000.

OREGON.

New wheat is coming into the mills at Jefferson and other places up the valley.

Salem has caught the infection of lawlessness, and robbers and burglars are beginning to operate around there with considerable vigor.

The Commercial Hotel at Salem is rising toward the third story. The windows of that tier are being put in place and the architecture of the edifice beginning to make a handsome show.

The Oregon Medical and Surgical Reporter for July is received, and contains many good articles of interest both to the people and to the medical profession. This journal is issued at Salem. Terms, $4 per year, currency.

A few nights ago the store of McCreary & Tracy, at Baker City, was broken into, and goods to the amount of $140, and coin and gold dust to the amount of $15 or $20 were abstracted therefrom by some burglar or burglars.

Messrs. Beach & Monteith intend to dispense with steam power for their flouring mills at Albany and bring water in by a race from Calapooia creek. The race will be about one-fifth of a mile in length. A great saving in running expenses will thus be effected.

The Polk county Republican tells us that several of the Salem dignitaries visited the Grand Ronde Indian Agency last week, and with the company was two ladies from Massachusetts, who had learned the Indian character from the Cooper novels. They interviewed the chief men of the primitive inhabitants and made a speech, which the Indians criticised and ridiculed.

In the town of Dalles, according to the census returns, there are 213 dwellings, 234 families, 520 white males, 389 white females, 27 males and 8 females—embracing Negroes, Indians and Chinese—a total population of 944. In Wasco county there are ten public and two private schools, in which are engaged 12 male and 5 female teachers, and attending the schools are 401 male and 378 female pupils. The total school fund for the year ending June 30th, was $2,997.

From the Dallas Republican of Saturday: A sad case of accidental poisoning occurred a short distance from this place on Tuesday night last. Miss Mary Woodward, living with her father, Joseph Woodward, on the evening mentioned, intending to take a dose of quinine in alcoholic solution, by mistake took into the stomach a large potion of bichloride of mercury (corrosive sublimate) dissolved in alcohol. The mistake was instantly discovered, and the patient commenced eating lard. An emetic was also administered. In the meantime a messenger was also dispatched for a physician. The patient is very low, hanging between life and death, but from the fact that she is yet alive, there are hopes of her recovery. The medicines were properly labeled, but from the similarity of the bottles the mistake was made.

GERMAN MILITARY DISCIPLINE.—A correspondent of the Pall Mall Gazette at Coblentz, writes: "A painful impression has been created here by the following incident: Three soldiers of the line were undergoing a long period of imprisonment in the fortress of Ehrenbreitstein, for desertion. They had originally deserted at Saarlouis and crossed the frontier into France, but, on the persuasion of their families, had surrendered themselves to their regiment. Their term of punishment was seven years, of which only six months had expired. Finding their lives, as it is asserted, insupportable, they determined to drown themselves on the first favorable opportunity, as a preferable fate. A few days ago they were employed on the Carthause, the fine plateau which separates the Rhine from the Moselle, and it seemed a fitting moment to attempt their rash enterprise. One sentry alone was in charge of them, and he witnessed their flight. He immediately fired and brought one victim down dead, the bullet having passed through his head. With extraordinary sang froid and determination he loaded a second time, and again fired with fatal precision: the deserter fell dead, pierced through the heart. Once more loading he fired at the third fugitive, and the bullet passed completely through his body, inflicting a frightful injury to his intestines. The unfortunate man was conveyed to the military lazaretto in Coblentz, where he lies in a hopeless condition. In military circles this melancholy catastrophe is regarded as a fitting retribution for a grave breach of discipline, a view of the case not altogether shared in by the civil portion of the community. One thing is certain, the needle-gun in the hands of a good marksman is a sure and terrible weapon."

A Washington dispatch of the 22d July, says: The Secretary of War thinks he will not be able to get away from here for the West until the middle of next month. Before he goes he will set in motion the machinery of the lately passed act reducing the number of army officers. This law will be published in army orders, as soon as an official copy is received from the State Department, and newspapers have already made known the fact that one of its provisions allows officers to resign with a year's pay, and a considerable number have already signified their purpose to go out on the bounty. The list of those who shall go before the board for examination is to be made up by Gen. Sherman, and he will probably call on commanders for suggestions. All this reduction of officers in one way and another will call for a large sum of money prior to the first of next February, and it is not improbable there will be a small deficiency.

A sun-struck pig is the latest curiosity of a zoological kind. An ingenious farmer in Minnesota had a porker afflicted in that way a short time ago, and restored him to health and happiness by splitting the skin on the top of his head and filling the gash with salt. Here is a suggestion for the surgeons.

OUR CITIZENS certainly deserve credit, for the energy they display to make the Oregon Immigration and Labor Exchange a success and benefit to the State, as well as the immigrant coming to our State. Every citizen should give all the aid in their power to help the large number of strangers coming to our State, and not forget to inform them that Kohn & Fishel, No. 91 Front street, have the largest stock of clothing in Oregon, other goods are of superior quality and sold at extreme low prices.

A Broadside for Humbugs

Imposture and ignorance generally go hand in hand, and of all the tribe of pretentious know nothings with which society is afflicted, the unscientific "medicine men" who attempt to tamper with the health of the community are the most dangerous and the most impudent.

So much by way of Text. Now for a special and particular application.

It appears that a mushroom growth of so-called "Bitters" is springing up under different names in various localities, particularly in the Southern and Western States, which the vendors have the hardihood to recommend to easy going people upon whom they think they can impose, as a substitute for Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, long recognized by every class as the purest and best medicated stimulant and invigorant the world affords.

These fluids are referred to being composed of worthless material, for a larger margin for profit than that Celebrated Tonic, and hence the anxiety of dollar worshipping dealers to foist them upon the public in its place.

But "forewarned is forearmed" and all parties whom these distinguished "Humbugs are endeavoring to coax and inveigle into substituting trash for a standard remedy, are hereby informed of the selfish and sordid motives which underlie the representations in question.

The great popularity and vast sales of Hostetter's Bitters cannot, of course, be seriously impaired by these "tricks of trade," but as the debilitated and suffering have a direct interest in the matter, it is only a matter of common humanity to put them on their guard.

STEAM POWER, NOS. 685 AND 687 FRONT ST.

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

320 ACRES OF LAND IN JACKSON COUNty, for sale or exchange for city property. It is in the suburbs of Gasburg. Gasburg, like the beaver, is all "terminus." The branch of the Central Pacific Railroad will intersect the Oregon and California road at Gasburg. The Oregon Central will run through it as does the stage road now, and many a railroad as yet unthought of will find its "terminus" in Gasburg. The warm and dry winters, the mild Italian summers, the gushing sparkling water at short intervals, the lofty peaks of the Cascades on the east, the Coast Range on the west, the broad and fertile valleys on the north and south, and last, but not least, the inexhaustible forests on every hand, make it naturally one of the finest "Tterminuses" that ever was attached onto the "tother end of any Railroad." Also a one-third interest in a water right and fifty acres of mining lands which have been worked for nine years and never failed to pay a dividend. Strawberries 5 cts. per pound, ONE MULE at 20 cts. per pound, and groceries in proportion.

TARRANT'S SELTZER APERIENT

What is Headache?—In nine cases out of ten, the source of headache is not in the brain, but in the stomach. Indigestion is the most frequent cause. The digestive organs being disordered they derange the action of the liver, the bowels, the kidneys and the nerves, and the whole secretive and excretive machinery being as it were thrown out of gear, the brain suffers. Restore the natural tone of the stomach and bowels with a few doses of TARRANT'S EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT, and headache arising from this cause is at once arrested. This delightful preparation is the best remedy for chronic and periodical headache at present known, and absolutely invaluable as a stomachic and gentle cathartic.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

This is the most thorough blood purifier yet discovered, and Cures all Humors from the worst Scrofula to a common Eruption. Pimples and Blotches on the face, and scaly or rough skin, which are such annoying blemishes to many young persons, yield to the use of a few bottles of this wonderful medicine. From one to eight bottles cure Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Scald Head, Ring Worms, Boils, Scaly Eruptions of the Skin, Scrofula Sores, Ulcers and "Canker" in the Mouth and Stomach. It is a pure medicinal extract of native roots and plants, combining in harmony Nature's most sovereign curative properties, which God has instilled into the vegetable kingdom for healing the sick. It is a great restorer for the strength and vigor of the system. Those who are languid, sleepless, have nervous apprehensions or fears, or any of the affections symptomatic of weakness, will find convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated and despondent, have frequent Headaches, mouth tastes badly in the morning, irregular appetite and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only a part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy. For the cure of Habitual Constipation of the Bowels it is a never failing remedy, and those who have used it for this purpose are loud in its praise. In Bronchial, Throat and Lung Diseases, it has produced many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines had failed. Sold by druggists at $1 00 per bottle. Prepared at the Chemical Laboratory of R. Bismarck and the War in Europe.

The [illegible] has been very [illegible] pressed [illegible] and in England that [illegible] of the French with [illegible]. It has been [illegible] to regard that monarch as a first-class tyrant, the natural foe of freedom, and the enemy of progress. An effort is also made to misrepresent him as having declared war against Germany, meaning thereby to subdue the whole German race. This is entirely unfounded and unfair. For years past France has been discourteously treated and insulted by Bismarck, who manages the affairs of Prussia. Time after time the pictorials of England have been filled with cuts [illegible] of Napoleon and laudatory of Bismarck, and those cuts have been copied widely in this country, inculcating the belief, among unthinking classes, that France was afraid of Prussia and would bear any extent of snubbing. The last insult culminated in the selection of Prince Leopold, of Hohenzollern, by the Spanish Cortes, as the sovereign of Spain, and this offer was undoubtedly the work of Bismarck, who intended either to humiliate France or force her into hostilities. Leopold is a subject of Prussia, is an officer in her army, and would be but a puppet in the hands of the Prussian Minister. Could his election be secured, France would be enclosed between Prussian influences and machinations on the north and south, while England, allied to Prussia by marriage, would check her ancient enemy at sea. It was not possible for France to view these advances without alarm, and a strong protest was issued, with a demand for their cessation, coupled with a firm request that assurance should be given that no Prussian should hereafter receive the permission of his Government to occupy the Spanish throne. The reply to these reasonable demands was delayed, under special pretexts, while preparations for war were being pushed with vigor. At length, when the answer did come, it was quite vague, evasive, and unsatisfactory.

Prussia admitted having given Leopold permission to accept, but added that his sovereign had advised him to decline, which amounted to a direct intimation that the permission would not be retracted. To bring the matter to a head with some clearly defined understanding, the second demand, that no Prussian should receive the consent of his Government for the position of King of Spain, was again strongly urged by the French Ambassador at Berlin. There was no time to lose; preparations for conflict were going on all around him; he fully comprehended the necessity for a prompt reply, and, while pressing the question to a solution, was snubbed by the King of Prussia in the most cutting manner—the insult being intended for the country represented by him. This was pushing France to the wall with a vengeance, and if Napoleon had not declared war he might have got ready to leave France with dispatch, and in disgrace. For years past Bismarck has carried things with a high hand. He has not been satisfied with exalting Prussia to the first rank; he wants supremacy. His course toward the weaker States of North Germany has been overbearing and exacting, and he has sought to pursue the same policy in his relations with France and Austria. The unsettled terms of the treaty of Prague, involving important provinces on the Rhine, and the strenuous efforts of Bismarck to absorb the southern independent States of Germany, have also tended to aggravate matters, and urge France into conflict. His note to Baron Werthier, Prussian Ambassador to the French Court, to "make no concession, but, if possible, prolong the discussion until the 20th of July," is sufficiently indicative of Bismarck's forgone intention to force hostilities.

We have no French predilections in this contest. Germany, by which we do not mean Prussia proper, as organized under Bismarck's policy, was our kind friend during our recent internecine war, while France, forgetting or ignoring her traditions, became a pronounced enemy of the United States. It was not to be expected that an Empire would regard with favor the struggles of a Republic, and Napoleon emphatically added his testimony to the truth of this hypothesis. Nevertheless history and incontrovertible facts should be vindicated. The commercial, manufacturing, shipping and agricultural interests of this country are enlisted, to a large extent, and it is better to move with a full understanding of the facts. In one very important respect we shall be great losers by the war. Our German immigration—the best which ever reaches this continent—will be materially lessened. Patriotic impulses will retain thousands in the Fatherland who would otherwise have made their homes among us. The German element in our midst—we speak in the broadest acceptation of the term—is eminently productive. It is also peaceable, honorable and well-disposed. It amalgamates with the native American element more rapidly then any other, and enters into the spirit and genius of our republican institutions with more facility and earnestness. It does not form organizations to invade other people with whom we hold peaceful relation, nor does it stone and beat unoffending Chinese. During our struggle the German people offered this Government one thousand millions of dollars, and bought our bonds when others held off. Our sympathies are with the Germans, but we cannot avoid the unpleasant persuasion that the intrigues of Bismarck have given Napoleon something like a plausible pretext for declaring hostilities against Prussia.

How Webster Worked.

In the spring of 1824, Mr. Webster was much concerned in the discussion then going on in the House of Representatives at Washington, upon the tariff. One morning he rose very early—earlier even than was his custom—to prepare himself to speak upon it. From long before daylight till the hour when the House met, he was busy with his brief. When he was far advanced in speaking, a note was brought to him from the Supreme Court, informing him that great case of "Gibbons v. Ogden" would be called on for argument the next morning. He was astounded at the intelligence, for he had supposed that after the tariff question should have been disposed of, he would still have ten days to prepare himself for this formidable conflict, in which the constitutionality of the laws of New York granting a steamboat monopoly of its tide-waters, would be decided.

He brought his speech on the tariff to a conclusion as speedily as he could, and hurried home to make such preparation for the great law argument as the shortness of the notice would permit. He had then taken no food since his morning's breakfast, but instead of dining he took a moderate dose of medicine and went to bed, and to sleep. At 10 P. M. he awoke, called for a bowl of tea, and, without other refreshment, went immediately to work. To use his own phrase, "the tapes had not been off the papers for more than a year." He worked all night, and, as he has told me more than once, he thought he never on any occasion had so completely the free use of all his faculties. He hardly felt that he had bodily organs, so entirely had his fasting and the medicine done their work. At 9 A. M. after eleven hours of continuous intellectual effort, his brief was completed.

He sent for the barber and was shaved; he took a very slight breakfast of tea and crackers, he looked over his papers to see that they were all in order, and tied them up; he read the morning journals to amuse and change his thoughts, and then he went into Court, and made that grand argument which, as Judge Wayne said above twenty years afterwards, "released every creek and river, every lake and harbor in our country from the interference of monopolies." Whatever he may have thought of his powers on the preceding night the Court and the bar acknowledged their whole force that day. And yet, at the end of five hours, when he ceased speaking, he could hardly be said to have taken what would amount to half the refreshment of a common meal, for above two-and-thirty hours, and, out of the thirty-six hours immediately preceding, he had for thirty-one been in a state of very high intellectual excitement and activity.—Curtis's Life of Webster.

The Boston Post says they have been firing cannon in the fields near Paris to bring on a rain. So, so, neighbor; but the next firing of cannon that takes place there may end a reign, says the N. Y. Commercial.

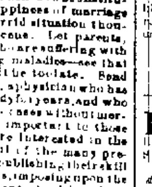
NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,



623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies—see that they are cured for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his specialty for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequently insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these horrible diseases, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay obtaining immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON cures [illegible] and will give to each patient a written agreement [illegible] effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon, stating age, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.
